GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS ROGERS TO PESTICIDE BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Don Rogers of Clayton to the North Carolina Pesticide Board.

Rogers is the owner and manager of Neuse River Home Inspection Service. He is the president of the Wake County Agribusiness Council, a member of the N.C. Licensed Home Inspection Association, and a member of the Johnston County Farm Bureau. Rogers received his Bachelor's degree in forestry from the University of Georgia.

The board governs programs of pesticide management and control. It is authorized to conduct hearings, adopt regulations and set policies. The board is also authorized to restrict the use of pesticides and to suspend or revoke licenses and registrations, as well as assess civil penalties for violations. The board has seven members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
